69 georgiy tanov on west and south africa propaganda linking every crisis in africa with so-called soviet expansion and a communist plot, pointing out ussr, cuba, gdr and other socialist countries have helped angola and ethiopia to uphold their independence and territorial integrity, and assistance including military to these countries was given in full accordance with 51 of un charter, which says that any country victim of aggression has right to count on such assistance, and even on collective defence, claiming south african racists fear for their apartheid system in face of socialism and so put out propaganda tales about soviet, cuban or marxist and similar threats to justify their militarist ways.
